Courses and study requirements

COURSE LOAD

Exchange students are expected to study full-time (30 ECTS per semester, where 1,5 ECTS equals one week of full-time studies). While students may include external courses in their applications, they are neither prioritised nor guaranteed admission to courses outside of Malmö Academy of Music.

It is advisable to think through your selection of courses carefully before putting together your study plan. Malmö Academy of Music | Lund University has no formal add and drop period at the beginning of the semester, which means that there are limited chances to change courses upon arrival. Therefore, it is important that your choice of priority alternative for each course is accurately selected.

Please note that full-time studies is a condition for getting a residence permit from the Swedish Migration Agency.*

The specific admission requirements for each course is found in its syllabus.*
- Special Area Studies \(SAS\) in English
Exchange students can apply for 'Special Area Study' (SAS) courses in subjects such as Swedish culture and society, European studies, regional courses and global issues of contemporary interest. This is a good opportunity to gain new knowledge in subjects that may be outside of your normal degree programme.
- Introductory Swedish Course \(SUSA\) for exchange students during the Orientation Weeks.
- Swedish language courses for exchange students
Swedish language courses can be counted within or in addition to a full-time study load.
Please note that these courses are not available for Danish and Norwegian students.*

Language requirements

It is recommended that the student's level of English is equivalent to IELTS 6.5/ TOEFL 90.

The Swedish language requirement for exchange students who want to study Swedish-taught courses is B2 or C1 (depending on the course) or equivalent.
